I just read your unsolicited 2/21 letter, presumptively signed "Better Courts for Missouri". Since your letter offered no further hint as to who you are, I looked also at your website, hoping that my "FAQ" might find its answer. Perhaps I looked too hastily because, again, I came away disappointed with no further idea as to who you are, other than a sorehead who has issues with the courts, The Missouri Bar, judicial selection committees, the Governor, the vast majority of Missouri lawyers and, no doubt, many others known only to you. If you would make yourself known to those you seek to influence beyond self-assigned anonymous (and misleading) titles, you might have more credibility. Or, on second thought, probably not.
